

Kentucky Department of Insurance

March 20, 2003

Department of Insurance takes court action against two unauthorized insurers

FRANKFORT, Ky - The Kentucky Department of Insurance has obtained restraining orders against two entities the agency alleges have been marketing unauthorized health insurance to Kentuckians, Insurance Commissioner Janie A. Miller announced today.

Franklin Circuit Court Judge William Graham issued a restraining order on Feb. 24 against O.T. R. Truckers Association, Inc., dba as O.T.R. Truckers Association Healthcare Fund, O.T.R. Truckers Health and Welfare Fund and Over the Road Truckers Healthcare Fund. Also named were M&M Underwriting, Inc., Alternative Insurance Resources, Inc., William Cable, Rusk L. Jones and James F. Mustoe.

On March 17, Franklin Circuit Court Judge Roger Crittenden issued a restraining order against CompuPlan, LLC.

Consumers participating in either plan should secure authorized health insurance immediately. Contact DOI at 800-595-6053 for more information.